CASE NO. 3:17-0020

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED(12)

PROPOSED TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER AND PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION AGAINST DEFENDANT STATE OF TENNESSEE

Plaintiff, John Anthony Gentry, pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 65, has filed a Complaint for Permanent Injunction and Other Equitable Relief and has applied for a temporary restraining order and an order to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue pursuant to Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, for Defendants acts or practices in violation of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution.

FINDINGS OF FACT

This Court, having considered Plaintiff's Complaint, Application for Temporary Restraining Order, Memorandum, and Authorities, exhibits, and all other papers filed in support of Plaintiff applications, finds that:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this case, and there is good cause to believe it will have jurisdiction over all the parties hereto, and that venue in this District Court is proper.
2. There is good cause to believe Defendants have engaged in, and are likely to continue to engage in, acts and practices that violate the Fourteenth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution and that the Plaintiff(s) are likely to prevail on the merits of this action.
3. There is good cause to believe that past and future complainants will suffer immediate and irreparable harm from Defendants' ongoing violations of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution unless Defendants are restrained and enjoined by this Court's entry of a Temporary Restraining Order ("ORDER").
4. There is good cause to believe that immediate and irreparable damage to the Court's ability to grant effective and final relief to all complainants and plaintiffs including; restitution, damages, and punitive damages unless they are immediately restrained and enjoined by order of this Court and that in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. Rule 65(b), the interest of justice requires that the Plaintiff's Motion be heard and granted without prior notice to Defendants.
5. Considering the Plaintiff's likelihood of ultimate success and weighing the equities, a temporary restraining order and injunction and other equitable relief is in the public interest.
6. Since the Court's order does not place any burden whatsoever on the Defendants for issuance of a restraining order, no security is required of Plaintiff(s).
